

Travel Award –
CIHR Institute of Gender and Health (IGH) 2024 Summer Institute in Sex and Gender⁺ Science

Instructions to apply:

1. Review the application instructions on the IGH website.
2. Complete and sign the Applicant Consent Form.
3. Get a CIHR PIN to be included in the application form, if not done already.
4. Complete and sign this application form.
5. Assemble the accompanying documents (list included at the end of this application form).
6. Compile all documents into a single PDF and save in the following format:
LastNameFirstName_SI_SexGender2024_TravelApplication.pdf
7. Email the full application (forms and accompanying documents) to IGH-ISFH@cihr-irsc.gc.ca before March 1st, 2024 at 11:59pm PT with the subject line “Travel Awards 2024 CIHR-IGH Summer Institute”. Applications submitted after this deadline will not be accepted.

IGH Travel Award Application Form

1. Applicant Information

a) Full name

b) Name and Address of Affiliated institution (where you are enrolled as a trainee)

c) Email

d) Cellphone

e) Institution Paid (where the funds will be sent)

f) Current trainee status

- Master's student
- Doctoral student/candidate
- Postdoctoral fellow (post-PhD)
- Post-health professional degree fellow
- Other, Please specify:

g) CIHR PIN

2. Research program

a) Research program title

b) Research program keywords (up to 10)

3. Budget (anticipated expenses)

Eligible expenses are restricted to costs directly related to attending the 2024 IGH Summer Institute

a) Travel information and cost estimate

The 2024 IGH Summer Institute will take place in Vancouver, British Columbia over five days from June 9th to June 14th, 2024 on the University of British Columbia campus. Please plan your travel accordingly.

Name of departure location to Vancouver (YVR)
From Vancouver (YVR) to arrival location
Mode of transportation
Cost estimate (note: lowest price economy return airline ticket, bus ticket, train ticket, public transportation, or taxi/ride share from the applicant's home town or academic institution to the 2024 IGH Summer Institute location in Vancouver)

b) Ground transportation estimate

Ground transportation includes:

- 1) Travel to and from the applicant’s home or academic institution to the airport/train station/bus station, etc.
- 2) Travel to and from the airport/train station/bus station etc in Vancouver to the location of the 2024 IGH Summer Institute (University of British Columbia campus).

Total ground transportation estimate
Brief description:

c) Accommodations

No funds will be provided for accommodation in Vancouver, since accommodation at the 2024 IGH Summer Institute will be covered directly by IGH. The exception is for accommodation while in transit for applicants in remote areas, as applicable.

Estimate for accommodation in transit
Brief description:

d) Meals and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses while in transit

Estimate for meals other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses while in transit (meals will be offered during the 2024 IGH Summer Institute)
Brief description:

e) Childcare costs

Childcare costs (up to $50 per day, as applicable).

Estimate for childcare costs
Brief description:

Grand total estimate:
------------------------------	--

4. Additional information and applicant signature

Full name, title, affiliated institute, and address of research supervisor

Research supervisor email

Applicant full name (trainee)

Applicant signature

Signature	Date

5. Accompanying documents (List)

1. Applicant’s research program summary (maximum 1 page, Arial 11 point). The summary must include a concise account of the research area, an overview of the research plan, specific objectives, and the methodology. The summary must also reflect the alignment of the applicant’s research program with the IGH mandate and the area of sex and gender+ science in health.

2. Certificate of completion for one of the sex and gender training modules. The applicant must submit a certificate of completion for one of the three online sex and gender training modules developed by IGH. Applicants should complete the module(s) that is most relevant to their research.

3. Applicant’s Biosketch CV

4. Applicant's letter of motivation (maximum 1 page, Arial 11 point). The applicant must provide a letter of motivation outlining:
 - How attending the 2024 CIHR-IGH Summer Institute will contribute to their research and/or career in sex and gender⁺ science

5. Applicant's statement on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) (maximum ½ page, Arial 11 point) that apply to the application. EDI-informed considerations may involve one or more of the following:
 - EDI considerations relevant to the research process (e.g., in the research questions, design, methods, analysis, reporting, etc);
 - Research respectfully involving and engaging Indigenous communities \(TCPS 2 Chapter 9\);
 - EDI considerations relevant to the researcher and/or research team
 - The lived and living experience of health or social inequity of the applicant, community engagement activities of the applicant, and/or other relevant considerations.

6. Research supervisor letter of support, signed on institutional letterhead from the applicant's primary supervisor that explicitly states:
 - Their consent for submission of the Travel Award application;
 - That they agree the applicant may travel to and participate in the 2024 IGH Summer Institute; and
 - The strength(s) and suitability of the applicant as a participant in the 2024 IGH Summer Institute.